

COMMISSION OF INQUIRY INTO POLICE CONDUCT

QUARTERLY REPORT

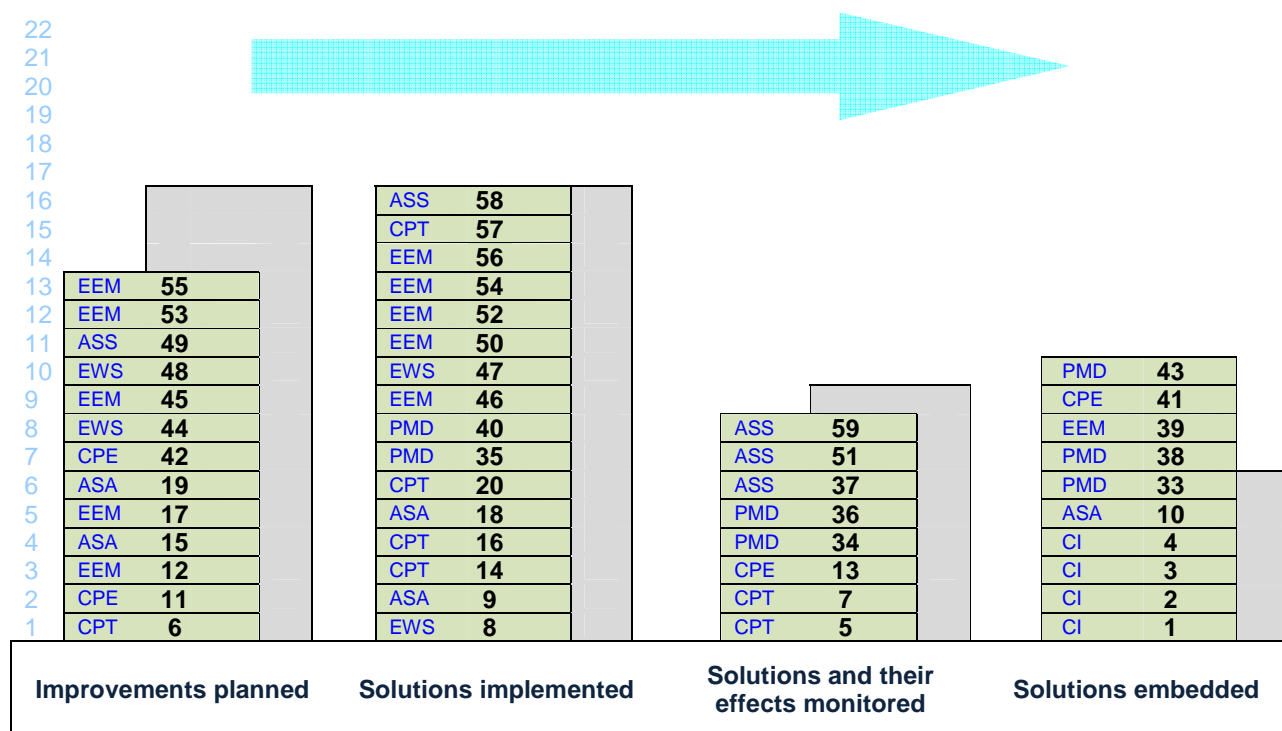

1 July 2013 to 30 September 2013

Introduction

This report is an update on the progress made by the New Zealand Police (Police), in implementing the recommendations from the Commission of Inquiry into Police Conduct (COI). The report is provided quarterly in accordance with the requirements of the Cabinet Policy Committee.

Police are responsible for implementing 47 of the 60 recommendations. The intention is not only to implement solutions, but to ensure that those solutions have the desired effect (that they are embedded).

Key areas of progress this quarter

There were no recommendation status changes in the September quarter.

A senior HR consultant has been engaged to review COI progress and identify any changes required to complete all recommendations by the end of the COI monitoring period (31 March 2017). This includes a reassessment of the current status allocated to each recommendation. The status allocated to certain recommendations is likely to change as a result of this review.
