Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing to you in response to your request dated 1 March 2019. You asked:

1. The number of visitor firearms licences issued and declined for the past 5 years broken down into month and year, age group, nationality and the reason for declining it?
2. The number of firearm licences issued and or declined to 16, 17 and 18-year-olds in NZ for the past 5 years broken down into month and year, gender, region/city and the reason for declining it?
3. The number of firearm licences that's been revoked or where the holder has been deemed unfit to carry a firearm for the past 5 years also broken down into month and year, region/city and the reason for revoking it.

Response to Question 1:

Between 1 January 2014 and 31 Dec 2018, New Zealand Police issued 3,632 visitor firearms licences. These are shown below by month, year, and age group. Police has no record of a visitor licence being refused in that period.

Police does not collect nationality of firearms licence holders. For people who apply for their visitor licence online, there is a Country field of where they are arriving from, but not all people who have had a visitor licence have applied online. Where the people had filled out the online application form and had the country stated, this is provided below.

Response to Question 2:

Between 1 January 2014 and 31 Dec 2018, New Zealand Police granted or refused 7,557 standard firearms licences to people who were 16, 17, or 18 years old at the time. These are shown below by month, year, Police district of issue, and status. This does not mean these licences are still current now – some may have been originally granted but later revoked, surrendered, or cancelled.

The reason a licence is refused is not recorded in structured fields and each application would need to be reviewed individually. This questions is refused in accordance with section 18(f) of the Official Information Act 1982 as the requested information cannot be made available without substantial collation or research. You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision.

Response to Question 3:

Between 1 January 2014 and 31 Dec 2018, New Zealand Police revoked 2,594 standard firearms licences. These are shown below by month, year, and Police district. This does not mean these licences are still revoked now – some may have been originally revoked and later re-instated. Twenty of the licences were revoked twice during this time, which is why the total of the numbers below adds up to more than 2,594.

The reason a licence is revoked is not recorded in structured fields and each revocation would need to be reviewed individually. This question is refused in accordance with section 18(f) of the Official Information Act 1982 as the requested information cannot be made available without substantial collation or research. You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision.
