

Touch Story Board 1

Going to School

1a.

Taylor was getting ready for school.

1b.

The lunchbox, pencil case and homework are in Taylor's backpack.

1c.

Mum walks Taylor to the school bus stop.

1d.

Mum gives Taylor a big hug.

Story Board 1

Questions

- 1 What had Taylor done to get ready for school?
- 2 Why did Mum walk Taylor to the bus stop?
- 3 Which side of the road should you wait for the school bus?
- 4 How did the hug from Mum make Taylor feel?
- 5 What sort of touch was it ? (touch we like that makes us feel good)

Touch Story Board 2

Lunchtime

2a.

Taylor comes out for lunch.

2b.

Taylor really likes going on the slide.

2c.

Someone from another class pushes Taylor really hard.

2d.

Taylor falls over.

Story Board 2

Questions

- 1 What did Taylor like doing in the playground?
- 2 Who here likes going on the slide?
- 3 Why did the other person push Taylor out of the way?
- 4 How did being pushed like this make Taylor feel?
- 5 What sort of touch is this? (touch that hurts and that we want to stop)
- 6 Do you ever touch people in a way that hurts?
- 7 How would this make them feel?
- 8 What do you think Taylor should do? (tell a trusted adult)

Touch Story Board 3

After School

3a.

Taylor goes next door to play with friends.

3b.

Taylor meets cousin Jay, who is staying there.

3c.

Jay helps Taylor to make a sandwich.

3d.

Jay puts his hand down Taylor's pants.

Story Board 3

Questions

- 1 Why did Taylor go next door?
- 2 Who was staying there?
- 3 How did Taylor feel when Jay put his hand down Taylor's pants?
- 4 What sort of touch is this? (touch that confuses us and that we want to stop)
- 5 What do you think Taylor should do?

Say “What Jay did was wrong. Taylor should tell Mum about it straight away.”