WARM ETHNIC GREETINGS FROM THE NEW ZEALAND POLICE

The New Zealand Police are proud to present the second national ethnic soccer tournament, the New Zealand Communities Football Cup, here in Palmerston North.

A warm welcome to the 8 teams, and their supporters, who have come from around New Zealand to compete for the title of the country's top ethnic football team.

Police developed an ethnic strategy in 2005 which increased our capability to effectively respond to the needs of ethnic peoples.

Globally, football provides a common playing field for people to connect - regardless of where they are from, their colour and status. For this very reason, police established the tournament with the inaugural event taking place in Wellington last year.

Last year's event was an effective vehicle for raising the profile of police and providing an opportunity for positive interaction amongst ethnic communities and key stakeholders. The event's on-going development opens many doors and provides the catalyst for successful police engagement with diverse communities.

We continually seek those from diverse ethnic backgrounds who are interested in joining the police - and there'll be police staff handing out information over the weekend.

Finally, we would like to acknowledge all those who have made this tournament a success, particularly the co-hosts and co-event organisers, Palmerston North City Council, regional sports trust Sport Manawatu and the Central Football Federation.

All the very best for the 2009 New Zealand Communities Football Cup -
Kia kaha, kia maia, Kia manawanui.

Howard Broad
Police Commissioner

Superintendent Wallace Haumaha
National Manager Maori,
Pacific and Ethnic Services

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The New Zealand Communities Football Cup event is the national tournament for the winners of ethnic or multi-cultural regional football events held around the country over the past 12 months. Regional ethnic football events have been held by local councils and ethnic organisations for some years.

The inaugural New Zealand Communities Football Cup event was held last year (2008) in Wellington and won by the Upper Hutt based Somalian team. Their 2-1 win was a fiercely fought out battle with the Polish team from Christchurch.

The New Zealand Police owned event was established to raise the profile of police and provide an opportunity for positive interaction amongst ethnic communities.

2009 NZCFC EVENT

Palmerston North plays host to the second annual New Zealand Communities Football Cup on Saturday 7 and Sunday 8 November 2009.

A total of eight teams have qualified from Auckland, Christchurch, Hamilton, Nelson, Upper Hutt, Wellington and host city Palmerston North with players of mixed African, Dutch, Fijian, mixed Middle Eastern, Polish and Somalian descent. Last year's winners, the Upper Hutt based Somalian team, are automatic qualifiers.

This year's event is co-hosted and co-funded by police and the Palmerston North City Council with support from Regional Sports Trust, Sport Manawatu, Central Football federation and various other organisations. The Kingsgate Hotel Palmerston North is the major sponsor, assisting us with the team accommodation and the awards celebration venue. Drinks manufacturer, Frucor, has kindly donated Mizone sports water for players and officials.

Entertainment and food will be available on both days.
