Welcome

Superintendent Alistair (Olly) Beckett, National Manager: Training and Professional Development

Kia ora, Talofa lava, Kia orana, Malo e lelei, Ni sa bula, Gud pela morning tru olgeta, Fakaalofa lahi atu and Pacific greetings to you all.

A warm welcome from the staff and students of The Royal New Zealand Police College. I would like to acknowledge Her Excellency The Honourable Dame Silvia Cartwright, Governor-General of New Zealand, High Commissioners and Consulate staff who have joined us today, and Acting Commissioner Steve Long, along with our guest speaker Doctor Tim Cooper who is a lecturer at the Otago University Department of Theology.

Police Remembrance Day is one that is shared throughout the whole of Australasia and the South Pacific region. Our service commemorates those serving police officers who have given their lives in the course of their duty and all those members of Police, serving and retired, sworn and non-sworn, who have died in the past year.

You may wonder why 29 September is the chosen date for this service. Well, it is the Feast Day of the Archangel Michael, who is the Patron Saint of Police. According to some research on Michael he is God's most trusted and carries out heaven's commands. He is a fierce warrior, a comforting protector against evil. He is the champion of right and justice.

Each day, on our televisions and in our newspapers, we are reminded that there are many acts of violence and terror in the world whose intended victims are police officers. These police officers are brave citizens in uniform who willingly stand up to those criminals and terrorists who would otherwise torment our society. In today's climate the job of policing is becoming ever more challenging and dangerous.

In these times we must always keep in mind that policing is a very honourable and very high calling in which we serve our fellow citizens. We control crime, we maintain order and we provide a wealth of vital services 24 hours a day. We are also prepared to lay down our lives for our country.

Your presence here today signifies your respect and remembrance of all those people who have died having contributed magnificently to New Zealand Police. We offer our support to those of you who grieve. On behalf of the extended Police family, I thank you all for coming today to share in this special Remembrance Day Service.

A Tribute

To the serving and retired police members who have died during the past year

Padre David R Dell

Good morning. As we share together in today's Remembrance Day Service, we do so as a part of the wider community of Police throughout Australasia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God those who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss. While some died in the line of duty, others were serving members and retired police staff.

Today, we are very privileged to have families of some of those who have died here with us - and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end, but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of Peace and Hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Hymn

Praise To The Lord, The Almighty

Words – Joachim Neander (1650-1680), translated by Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878) and others [Accompanied by the Salvation Army Band and Take Note]

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation.
Come, all who hear: brothers and sisters, draw near,
praise him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who shall prosper our work and defend us;
surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend us.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord - O let all that is in me adore him!
All that has life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the 'Amen!' sound from his people again - gladly with praise we adore him!

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the region of the South Pacific, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

Amen.

Padre David R Dell

Could you all please stand and remain standing if possible.

After the Official Party has moved outside, Acting Commissioner Steve Long will lay a wreath at the foot of the Memorial Wall.

Then Her Excellency The Honourable Dame Silvia Cartwright will unveil a replacement plaque in memory of Detective Constable Duncan John Taylor. Duncan was recently awarded the NZ Bravery Medal and the new plaque records this.

Padre David R Dell

Lord God, we ask you to bless this new plaque inscribed with the name of Detective Constable Duncan John Taylor NZBM.

May it always remind us of Duncan's enthusiasm and commitment to policing, his courageous and generous spirit and the high ideals for which he lived and died.

In the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Pipe Sergeant Craig Fraser, a member of the New Zealand Police Pipe Band, will then play "The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, Is Ended"

We stand in silence.

The Official Party moves back inside.

Āta whakarongonā: Me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai; Kia tau tō ātawhai;
Manaakitia mai Aotearoa.

God of nations, at thy feet, in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices we entreat, God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific's triple star from the shafts of strife and war,
make her praises heard afar; God defend New Zealand!

Please be seated.

How Great Thou Art

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc [Accompanied by the Salvation Army Band, Take Note and the RNZPC Culture Group]

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
how great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
how great thou art! How great thou art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home - what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!
Then sings my soul .....

Whakaaria mai, to ripeka ki au –
tiaho mai, ra roto i te po.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai –
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
