

POLICE REMEMBRANCE DAY 2009 AND ROLL OF HONOUR 1886-2009

THE ROYAL NEW ZEALAND POLICE COLLEGE
29 SEPTEMBER 2009

The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by New Zealand Police and the Police Association, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police members and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to the Police.

Police members throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Any donations towards the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Huia e! Huia tangata kotahi. He tōtara kua hinga.
The feather of the huia, for someone special. One dearly departed.

Police colours explained

Padre David R Dell

Good morning. The colour party is carrying the Police flag. The Police flag is accorded the same recognition that the colours are accorded in the armed forces. These recognise those who have laid down their lives in the course of their duties.

To the serving and retired police staff who have died during the past year Padre David R Dell

As we share together in today's Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God those who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss. While some died in the line of duty, others were serving and retired police staff.

Today, we are very privileged to have here with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Hymn

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, to ripeka ki au;
tiahō mai, ra roto i te po.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, to ripeka ki au;
tiahō mai, ra roto i te po.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Amine

Time of Remembrance

Padre David R Dell

We meet near the memorial that reminds us of the New Zealand police officers, as well as traffic officers from past eras, whose lives were taken while carrying out their duties. We salute them today and we remember their loved ones who are still living.

Silence.

Over the past year, to the best of our knowledge, no serving staff have been killed in the line of duty in Australia or in the islands of the South Pacific. In New Zealand, however, two officers were slain while carrying out their lawful duties.

I call on Superintendent Gail Gibson to read the names of the serving staff of the New Zealand Police who were slain on duty and then those who died while in service.

Superintendent Gail Gibson

Let us remember the two officers of the New Zealand Police who were slain on duty in the past year.

We remember ... (see page 7)

Let us now remember the other staff of the New Zealand Police who died while in service in the past year.

We remember ... (see page 8)

---

Padre David R Dell

We ask Assistant Commissioner Grant Nicholls and Retired Chief Inspector Sherwood Young to read the names of those retired and other former staff notified to us, who have died during the past year.

Assistant Commissioner Grant Nicholls and Retired Chief Inspector Sherwood Young

We remember ... (see pages 9-13)

We also remember a former wing patron ... (see page 14)

Musical Backing

Tears In Heaven

David Dell's Take Note Singers

Words and Music by Eric Clapton and Will Jennings

Would you know my name, if I saw you in heaven?

Would it be the same, if I saw you in heaven?

I must be strong and carry on,

'cause I know I don't belong here in heaven.

Would you hold my hand, if I saw you in heaven?

Would you help me stand, if I saw you in heaven?

I'll find my way, through night and day,

'cause I know I just can't stay here in heaven.

Time can bring you down, time can bend your knees;

time can break your heart, have you begging please, begging please.

Would you hold my hand, if I saw you in heaven?

Would you help me stand, if I saw you in heaven?

Beyond the door, there's peace I'm sure;

and I know there'll be no more tears in heaven.

Would you know my name, if I saw you in heaven?

Would it be the same, if I saw you in heaven?

I must be strong and carry on,

'cause I know I don't belong here in heaven.

Prayer

The Rev Trevor Harrison

Police Chaplain – Napier

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the region of the South Pacific, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray.

Amen.

Laying of the Wreath

Padre David R Dell

In a moment, Acting Commissioner Lyn Provost will lay a wreath at the Memorial Wall. We ask that everyone remains in the gym and views this ceremony on the screen.

Would you all please stand and remain standing if possible.

After the Official Party has moved outside, Acting Commissioner Lyn Provost lays a wreath at the foot of the Memorial Wall.

Then a member of the New Zealand Police Pipe Band will play "The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, Is Ended."

We stand in silence.

The Official Party moves back inside.

Please be seated.

Song

Hallelujah

David Dell's Take Note Singers

Melody and Chorus by Leonard Cohen. Words by Padre David Dell

Sometimes this life lifts you up – sets you high on a mountain top and everywhere you look is beautiful.

Sometimes the joy makes you whole as it overflows your very soul and from your lips a breath sings hallelujah!

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Sometimes this life brings you down – you're left lying on the ground and nothing seems to matter anymore.

Sometimes your crying goes unknown, it leaves you feeling so alone that the last thing on your mind is hallelujah!

Sometimes you're lost in the past rememb'ring things that didn't last and longing for the days that had to end.

Sometimes you wish you could turn back time and live again in the state of mind where ev'rything resolved in hallelujah!

Wintertime can seem so long – through rain and snow your hope is gone – yet springtime brings the frozen ground to life.

Life is hollow without pain – yet hope, it covers up the stains,
and from your lips brings out a hallelujah!

No-one said that life should be an easy stroll on a sandy beach – everyone knows happiness and loss.

Where there is loss, there can be gain, so stand up on your feet again and hear your life within sing hallelujah!

Hymn

I Vow To Thee, My Country

Words by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. Music by Gustav Holst

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above;

entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love.

The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test;

that lays upon the altar the dearest and the best.

The love that never falters, the love that pays the price;

the love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago;

most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know.

We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;

her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering.

And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase;

and her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.
