

POLICE REMEMBRANCE DAY 2011 AND ROLL OF HONOUR 1886-2011

THE ROYAL NEW ZEALAND POLICE COLLEGE
29 SEPTEMBER 2011

The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by New Zealand Police and the Police Association, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police staff and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to the Police.

Police staff throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Any donations towards the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Huia e! Huia tangata kotahi. He tōtara kua hinga.
The feather of the huia, for someone special. One dearly departed.

Police colours explained

Padre David R Dell

Good morning. The colour party is carrying the Police flag. The Police flag is accorded the same recognition that the colours are accorded in the armed forces. These recognise those who have laid down their lives in the course of their duties.

The National Anthem

E Ihowa Atua, ō ngā iwi matou ra, āta whakarongonā me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai; kia tau tō ātawhai;
manaakitia mai, Aotearoa.

God of nations, at thy feet, in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices we entreat, God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific's triple star from the shafts of strife and war,
make her praises heard afar; God defend New Zealand!

A Tribute

To the serving and retired police staff who have died during the past year

Padre David R Dell

Chaplain: The Royal New Zealand Police College

As we share together in today's Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God those who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss. While some died in the line of duty, others were serving and retired police staff.

Today, we are very privileged to have here with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Hymn

Amazing Grace

Words by John Newton (1725-1807)

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, trials and snares I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

Everybody Hurts

David Dell's Take Note Singers

Words and music by R.E.M. adapted and arranged by David R Dell

When your day is long and the night, the night is yours alone;
when you're sure you've had enough of this life, well hang on.

Don't let yourself go; 'cause everybody cries;
and everybody hurts sometimes.

When your day is night; hold on;
if you feel like letting go; hold on.
when you're sure you've had enough of this life, well hang on.

'Cause everybody hurts; take comfort in your friends;
'cause everybody hurts.

Don't throw your hand. Don't throw your hand.

If you feel like you're alone; no, no, no, you're not alone.

If you're own your own in this life, the days and nights are long;
when you think you've had too much of this life to hang on.

Well, everybody hurts; and everybody cries;
and everybody hurts sometimes.

Hold on. Everybody hurts.

Hold on. You are not alone.

Hold on. Everybody hurts.

Hold on. You are not alone.

Hold on.

Prayer

Father Peter Head

National Coordinating Chaplain

Chaplain: Police National Headquarters, Wellington Central and Maritime Unit

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific region, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray.

Amen.

Hymn

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Āmine

Po atarau, e moea iho nei,
e haere anā, koe ki pāmamao.
Haere rā, ka hoki mai ano,
ki i te tau, e tangi atu nei.

Now is the hour when we must say goodbye;
soon you'll be sailing far across the sea.
While you're away, oh, please remember me;
when you return, you'll find me waiting here.
When you return, you'll find me waiting here.
