

POLICE REMEMBRANCE DAY 2013 AND ROLL OF HONOUR 1886-2013

THE ROYAL NEW ZEALAND POLICE COLLEGE
27 SEPTEMBER 2013

The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by New Zealand Police and the Police Association, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police staff and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to the Police.

Police staff throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Any donations towards the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Huia e! Huia tangata kotahi. He tōtara kua hinga.
The feather of the huia, for someone special. One dearly departed.

A Tribute

To the serving and retired police staff who have died during the past year
Padre David R Dell

As we share together in today's Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God those who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss. While some died in the line of duty, others were serving and retired police staff.

Today, we are very privileged to have with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Hymn

Amazing Grace

Words by John Newton (1725-1807)

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, trials and snares I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

I Vow To Thee, My Country

Words by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. Music by Gustav Holst

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above;
entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love.
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test;
that lays upon the altar the dearest and the best.
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price;
the love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago;
most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know.
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering.
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase;
and her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific region, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray.

Amen.

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiahō mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiahō mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Āmine.
