

POLICE REMEMBRANCE DAY 2016 AND ROLL OF HONOUR 1886-2016

THE ROYAL NEW ZEALAND POLICE COLLEGE
29 SEPTEMBER 2016

The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by New Zealand Police and the Police Association, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police staff and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to the Police.

Police staff throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Any donations towards the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Huia e! Huia tangata kotahi. He tōtara kua hinga.
The feather of the huia, for someone special. One dearly departed.

A Tribute

To the serving and retired police employees who have died during the past year.

Padre David Dell

As we share together in today's Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God the 32 Police and Traffic Officers who have been slain on duty over the past 130 years, the 40 staff who died as a result of their duties over the past 130 years, and the serving and former Police staff who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss of those serving and retired police employees who have died.

Today, we are very privileged to have with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Hymn

Amazing Grace

Words by John Newton (1725-1807)

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;

I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, trials and snares I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

E To Matou Matua I Te Rangi

The Royal New Zealand Police College Kapa Haka Group Words Traditional 1830s. Music possibly by Morvin Simon.

E tō mātou Matua i te rangi,
kia tapu tōu Ingoa,
kia tae mai tōu rangatiratanga.

Kia meatia tāu e pai ai
ki runga ki te whenua,
kia rite anō ki tō te rangi.

Homai ki a mātou āiane
he taro mā mātou mo tēnei rā.

Murua o mātou hara,
me mātou hoki e muru nei
i ō te hunga e hara ana ki a mātou.

Aua hoki mātou e kawea kia whaka-waia;
engari whaka-orangia mātou, i te kino.

Nōu hoki te rangatiratanga,
te kaha, me te korōria,
āke, āke, āke. Āmine.

Prayer

Padre David Dell

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific region, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc.

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
