NEW ZEALAND
POLICE
Ngā Pirihimana o Aotearoa

Huia e!

Huia tangata kotahi.

He tōtara kua hinga.

The feather of the huia,
for someone special.
One dearly departed.

The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by the Police Association and New Zealand Police, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police staff and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to Police.

Police staff throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Money raised through sales of the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Police flag explained

Wallace Haumaha
Deputy Commissioner
Māori, Pacific & Ethnic Services

Shortly the Police flag will be paraded into the gymnasium by the colour party. The Police flag is accorded the same recognition that the colours are accorded in the armed forces. These recognise those who have laid down their lives in the course of their duties.

Please stand as the Police flag is marched on.

National Anthem

Words by Thomas Bracken
(1841 – 1898)

E Ihowā Atua,
O ngā iwi mātou rā
Āta whakarangona;
Me aroha noa
Kia hua ko te pai;
Kia tau tō atawhai;
Manaakitia mai
Aotearoa

God of nations, at thy feet,
in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices we entreat,
God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific's triple star
from the shafts of strife and war,
make her praises heard afar;
God defend New Zealand!

A Tribute

Padre David Dell

We share together in today's Police Remembrance Day Service as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific. We remember before God the police and traffic officers who were slain on duty or died as a result of their duties over the past 133 years.

We remember those serving and former police employees who died during the past 12 months and we share with their families, colleagues and friends, a sense of common loss. We remember in prayer the families here, and those family members and friends who cannot be with us today.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Prayer

Padre David Dell

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us. Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific region, as they have helped keep our communities safe. May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Laying of the Wreaths

Wallace Haumaha

Deputy Commissioner

Māori, Pacific & Ethnic Services

In a moment, the Official Party will move outside where they will lay wreaths at the Memorial Wall.

Deputy Commissioner Michael Clement will lay a wreath in memory of New Zealand Police employees who were slain on duty or died as a result of their police duties, and serving employees who died during the past 12 months.

The Minister of Police, the Hon Stuart Nash, will lay a wreath on behalf of the Government of New Zealand in memory of serving and former members of New Zealand Police.

Deputy Chief Executive Kaye Ryan will lay a wreath in memory of members of the Australian and South Pacific Police services who were slain on duty or died as a result of their police duties and former New Zealand Police employees who died during the past 12 months.

We ask that everyone else remains seated in the gymnasium and views the ceremony on the screen to your left.

Pipe Major Scott Giffin, New Zealand Police Pipe Band, will then play 'The Dark Island' lament.

We reflect in silence.

Recruits perform the New Zealand Police Haka to the Memorial Wall in memory of serving and former members of New Zealand Police.

In a moment, the Official Party moves back inside.

Hymn

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941

© Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc.

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō ripeka ki au;
tiaho mai, rā roto i te pō.
Hei kōna au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō ripeka ki au;
tiaho mai, rā roto i te pō.
Hei kōna au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Amine.

Benediction

Padre David Dell

Police flag marched off

Please stand while the Police flag is marched off.

Official Party leaves

Please remain standing as the Official Party departs.

Following their departure, we ask that you move outside so that the venue can be prepared for the training day.

Following the service, a light lunch will be served immediately in the Dining Room.

The Police College Chapel of Peace, the Multifaith Prayer Room, and the Police Museum are open.
